Club Organized For Owners of Mobile Homes

CURUNNA—Charles Benore of Durand was elected the first president of the Michigan Courtesy Club, an organization of mobile home owners, at the group's first annual meeting at McCurdy Park Sunday.

Lee Matthews of Vernon was named vice president, Dennis McGuire of Alma secretary-treasurer, Ted Austin of Owosso, host and Genevieve Jennings of Owosso, sociability chairman.

The group discussed rules of the road, making reports to the secretary on good places to stay and places which cater to mobile homes.

McGuire presented a map and discussed the matter of identifying member's units.

A trip to Hartwick Pines Sept. 14 – 15 was planned.

The next meeting is to be at McCurdy Park July 28.

Charter members are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benore of Durand, Mr. and Mrs. Merlene S. Koutz of Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arris of Owosso, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Matthews of Vernon, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Jennings of Owosso, Ted Austin of Owosso, Dennis McGuire of Alma and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Patchett of Perry.
